

UC DAVIS SCHOOL OF LAW ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
KING HALL RISING STAR ALUMNA/US AWARD NOMINATION FORM

The Award: The Rising Star Alumna/us Award is awarded by the U.C. Davis School of Law Alumni Association Board of Directors to an alumna/us who has graduated in the past fifteen years and embodies the values of the School and has demonstrated early post-graduate achievement in the legal profession or in service to society or to the School.

Eligibility: Nominees must be graduates of the U.C. Davis School of Law within the past fifteen years. Nominees must have at least one recommendation describing the nominee's achievement or service. Nominations may be made by any member of the public.

Selection Criteria: Award recipients are selected on the basis of their early career achievements and service to society, such as contributions to the legal profession, education, public service, professional societies, and civic or community causes that reflect the values of the School and/or on the basis of their commitment to the School through their contributions of service or financial support to the School.

Nominations may be submitted by mail or e-mail by August 30, 2019, addressed to:

U.C. Davis School of Law
400 Mrak Hall Drive
Davis, CA 95616-5201
Attn: Casey Becker

-or-

alumni@law.ucdavis.edu

Selection: The Board of Directors of the U.C. Davis School of Law Alumni Association shall select the recipient of the Rising Star Alumna/us award. To nominate a candidate for the Rising Star Alumna/us Award, please complete the following or include the information in a letter of nomination:

Name of Nominee: _____ Year of Graduation: _____

Nominees's address: _____

Phone number and e-mail address: _____

Title/Profession: _____

Company/Employer: _____

Company/Employer address: _____

Description of nominee's early achievement or service and how it reflects the School's values (see the School's Mission Statement, below) by an attachment to this form.

The mission of the School of Law of the University of California, Davis, is to be a nationally and internationally recognized leader in the development and dissemination of legal knowledge, as well as the education of students to become socially responsible lawyers committed to professional excellence and high ethical standards, and to provide significant public service through law reform and professional activities. Through its faculty, students, and graduates, the School of Law seeks to make substantial contributions toward solving the complex legal problems confronting our society.