MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Legal education is changing. At UC Davis School of Law, we are leading the way forward, innovating in ways that address the challenges ahead while still remaining true to the community that long has defined King Hall.

While law school applications were down across the nation, we experienced a 25 percent increase and enrolled another incredibly gifted and diverse class. We also enrolled our largest-ever LL.M. class of attorneys, judges, and scholars from around the world.

King Hall is on the move. We are recruiting new faculty, offering new courses, launching initiatives such as the Aoki Center for Critical Race and Nation Studies, and expanding international partnerships with the China University of Political Science and Law, the University of Lausanne, the Universidad de Chile, and many other schools abroad. We are increasing support for internships, job placement programs, employer outreach, and career counseling, and building upon our consistently high bar passage rate—this year's was 86 percent—with new bar workshops and academic success services.

We are working harder than ever to provide as much financial aid as possible for students. Thanks to the generous support of the King Hall community, the School of Law raised more than $1.6 million during 2013-14, which helped us to increase scholarships, expand our Loan Repayment and Assistance Program, and set aside approximately 40 percent of professional fees for student assistance.

King Hall received its highest rating ever from legal educators and professionals in the most recent U.S. News rankings, where we were ranked 22nd in the nation by law school deans and faculty and 24th by lawyers and judges. Our Alternative Dispute Resolution curriculum was honored by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit with the 2014 ADR Education Award. Mariano-Florentino Cuéllar, the newest justice of the California Supreme Court, will deliver the Commencement Address for the King Hall Class of 2015.

Our faculty continue to set new standards for teaching excellence, cutting-edge scholarship on the most pressing legal issues of our time, and service to the greater community. To name just a few examples:

Professor Karima Bennoune received the Dayton Literary Peace Prize for her book Your Fatwa Does Not Apply Here: Untold Stories from the Fight Against Muslim Fundamentalism; Associate Dean Vikram Amar participated in a nationally televised PBS campaign finance debate and also appeared on CBS's This Morning to comment on constitutional issues; Professor Afra Afsharipour was named to Lawyers of Color's "50 Under 50" list of minority law professors making an impact in legal education; and I was honored to be among the attorneys successfully representing the State Bar in the California Supreme Court in support of undocumented immigrant Sergio Garcia's application for admission to the bar.

We are, and will remain, a world leader in legal education, bursting with talent and energy, dedicated to academic excellence and public service, and defined by our unique sense of community. Thank you for your support, and thank you for believing in King Hall!

REUNION CLASS GIFTS

Reunions are a special time to reflect on your years as a student, to reconnect with old classmates, favorite professors, and to celebrate your UC Davis School of Law experience. While many things have changed at King Hall, one thing remains the same: UC Davis School of Law is committed to offer, in a public university setting, a legal education that is second to none. Reunion Class Gifts help to sustain this.

Thank you to the alumni listed on this page and the next who made gifts and pledges that counted toward their Reunion Class Gift for reunions held on October 26, 2013. All gifts received between January 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014 were counted and recognized here. Thank you to all Reunion Committee Volunteers that helped make the reunion a success.

VOLUNTEERS

Alumni volunteers and friends of the Law School are an important part of what makes UC Davis School of Law a wonderful place to study law. Throughout the 2013-2014 academic year, many alumni and friends have come to King Hall and spoken on panels, attended networking receptions, made phone calls to support the C.A.R.E.S. program, participated in the King Hall Outreach Program, spoken in a class, acted as a mentor, and more. Their contributions are an integral part of what makes this law school so great.

Thank you for your support and gift of time!
