Happy Thanksgiving!

THIS CAREER NEWS IS IN LIEU OF FRIDAY'S DUE TO THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY.

Summer Judicial Externships

If you are applying to summer Judicial Externships, please refer to the resources such as the Guide to Judicial Externships available on the CSO Judicial Externship webpage.

There are now two Excel spreadsheets of federal and state judges and their addresses on the CSO Judicial Externship webpage. These spreadsheets can be used for mail merging your cover letter and address labels so that you do not need to spend your Thanksgiving break researching and typing addresses. A link to instructions for mail merge are available at the CSO Judicial Externship webpage or you can use the mail merge wizard in Word.

If you have any questions, please schedule an appointment with Ali Shinsato by calling 530.752.6574.

Opportunities Through the ABA—Deadlines Approaching

JUDICIAL INTERN OPPORTUNITIES PROGRAM (JIOP)

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 7, 2011

Sponsored by the ABA Section of Litigation, the JIOP provides opportunities to students who belong to racial and ethnic groups that are traditionally underrepresented in the profession, as well as students with disabilities, students who are economically disadvantaged and students who identify themselves as lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgendered.

This past year, the JIOP placed 170 law students in judicial internships. These positions are made possible through the generous judicial officers at state, federal and appellate levels. In 2011, Internships are available in the following locations: Phoenix, AZ; Los Angeles, CA; San Francisco, CA; Washington, DC; Miami, FL; Illinois; Philadelphia, PA; Texas; Seattle, WA.

Qualified students who pass through the initial screening interview will receive a judicial interview. Interns will receive an award of $1,500. Law students need not be an ABA Law Student Division member to apply; however, students accepted into the program will be required to join the ABA ($25.00) and the Section of Litigation (Free).
