Post-Graduate Public Interest Fellowship Program

APRIL 12 (NOON—1 PM), ROOM 1008

Find out how to obtain a public interest fellowship and bring your own funding to the organization. This program will provide tips on finding a sponsoring organization, developing a project, preparing a proposal, and interviewing. Non-profit organizations begin seeking 3L applicants to partner with as early as July and Equal Justice Works applications are usually due in early to mid-September. Start preparing NOW and don't miss the deadlines!

Junior Associates in Asian Affairs

APPLICATION DEADLINE FOR SUMMER POSITIONS: APRIL 12

The Asia Foundation invites graduate students and recent graduate degree holders to apply for a limited number of opportunities as Junior Associates in Asian Affairs in the Foundation's offices in San Francisco and Washington, D.C. These short-term affiliations are to further the professional development of individuals specifically interested in Asia. Successful applicants will gain further knowledge of the region and an understanding of the Foundation's work through specific assignments such as the following: conducting research; contributing to proposal development; assisting with the design and implementation of programs; preparing reports on Foundation projects; and other tasks as needed.

"Get Inspired, Get Hired" featuring Josh Tetrick

APRIL 14TH (NOON—1PM), MOOT COURT BOARDROOM

PRESENTED BY ACS, CAREER SERVICES & CILC

The changing job market requires that students implement unconventional methods in their job search. While many books cover this subject, Josh Tetrick has put words into action and found success in taking creative steps to build his career. Josh is a social entrepreneur, writer and speaker. He has led a UN business initiative in Kenya, worked for both former President Clinton and the president of Liberia, and, more recently, led the development of McGuire Woods LLP's global climate change practice. With his unique legal background as well as an engaging speaking style, Josh can help you find a job while pursuing your passion.

Fall On-Campus Interview Program Informational Session

APRIL 14 (4-5PM), ROOM 2011

Every fall, legal employers from various sectors conduct interviews on-campus with King Hall students. If you plan to participate in the Fall On-Campus Interview (OCI) program, attendance at this session is strongly recommended to gain essential information on the process and deadlines. OCI interviews begin on August 16th (before school starts), so come to this session and get a head start on planning.

Making the Most of Your Summer

APRIL 23 (NOON—1 PM), RM 094

A lot is at stake this summer be it a permanent offer, references (both formal and informal) or a general boost in your career path. Making a good impression from the get-go is extremely important to your professional development and career. This presentation will identify potential stumbling blocks, highlight goals to be achieved, identify opportunities to shine, and teach you how to be productive this summer. Please join us and learn how to make the most of your summer.

Funding

Equal Justice Works 2010 Summer Corps

The summer program provides a $1000 Education Award to law students upon completion of 300 hours of service. Visit the Summer Corps page for more information.

Employer Outreach

New York & Washington, D.C.

Mindy Baggish, Director of Career Services, will be on the road conducting outreach to employers on the east coast. Next week, Mindy will be traveling to Washington, D.C. and New York City. She has calendared many meetings with legal employers, in all sectors, in both cities. It promises to be a productive trip and most beneficial to our students' future employment. Future excursions to other locations are in the works, including an extensive trip to Southern California.
