KHIPLA Summer FellowshipAPPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 31; ELIGIBILITY: KING HALL 1LS OR 2LS

The King Hall Intellectual Property Law Association (KHIPLA) is happy to announce the inaugural year of summer fellowships supporting public interest IP work for King Hall students. The goal of the grants is to give KH students exposure to work that explores the wide range of public interest IP law. There are a lot of great organizations out there, and this job can serve as either a jumping-off point for future public interest IP work, or as a good background for later firm work. If you might be interested in applying for this, please email Camille Barr to get more information and to find out ways to volunteer hours.

Amount funded: depends on the success of our fundraising - up to $4,000/summer.

Requirements for funding:

1. successful securing of IP-related, unpaid internship from the list available in the Symplicity document library;
2. successful application to KHIPLA;
3. 10 hours volunteered toward fundraising for KHIPLA.
