Freelance Lawyering—Presentation and Workshop

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

NOON—1 PM (PRESENTATION), 6-7:30 PM (WORKSHOP)

What does it mean to be a freelance lawyer? What is contract work? Come hear about what attorney/author Marina Modlin calls the "independence track". Ms. Modlin is a Bay Area lawyer, founder of Modlin Legal, a freelance firm and now an estate planning firm. Ms. Modlin is the author of the recently-published The Independence Track: How To Succeed As A Freelance Attorney (available in the CSO library), a how-to guide for attorneys pursuing freelance/contract work directly from law firms (instead of indirectly from temp agencies). Ms. Modlin will explain how to set up a freelance law practice, how to get freelance work, and how to do the work. National Association for Legal Professionals (NALP) has described her process as "common-sense," "pragmatic," and "easy to put into practice." You can learn more about Ms. Modlin, Modlin Legal, and The Independence Track here and here.

RSVP on Symplicity. Log into Symplicity, go to Events then the Workshops tab, click on The Independence Track: How to Succeed as a Freelance Attorney link, click the RSVP button. Please note that there are separate RSVPs for the presentation and workshop.
