Diversity Opportunities

DO I QUALIFY FOR “DIVERSITY” OPPORTUNITIES?

“Diversity” encompasses more than race and ethnicity. Many diversity programs also seek individuals based on disability, socio-economic disadvantage (e.g. first generation college and/or law school graduate), gender identification, and sexual orientation. Due to underrepresentation of women in the profession, many programs are open to all female applicants. Read the application criteria carefully before you disqualify yourself from something for which you may be eligible.

3. A one-page personal statement introducing the applicant and explaining his/her motivation and objectives in applying for a summer internship with the Air Force JAG Corps
4. The applicant's top five geographic preferences by base or state (listing of bases can be found at <http://www.jagusaf.hq.af.mil/> <<http://www.jagusaf.hq.af.mil/>> or by calling 1-800-JAG-USAF) and when the applicant would prefer to begin the internship (Monday, May 21, 2012 or Monday, June 4, 2012)
5. Specify on a separate sheet or sheets of paper addressing the KSAs and how they relate to the applicant's work experience, education and training
6. Undergraduate and Law School transcripts (readable copies are acceptable)

1Ls: Northern District of California Judicial Externships

If you are applying to the Northern District of California for a summer judicial externship, you may send your application before you receive your first semester grades. Applications should not be sent before December 1 and we have been told by at least one Judge that interviews will not commence before February 1. If you do apply before receiving your grades, then your cover letter should state that you will update your application with your first semester transcript as soon as it is released in early 2013.
