The California International Law Center (CILC) 2012 UC Human Rights Fellowship

Two $4500 fellowships are available for fieldwork by UC Davis students, either within the United States or abroad, during the summer of 2012.

The fellowship offers each student recipient the opportunity to carry out fieldwork with human rights organizations related to the student's area of study. The purpose of the fellowship is to provide students with an opportunity to contribute to the work of human rights organizations while gaining practical experience that may influence the students' area of research or academic focus.

Further information, including the application and information on past student fellows from Davis can be found here. For questions regarding the UC Davis application, please contact Kirsten Hill. Fellowship applications are due on March 12, 2012 at 4 PM.

2012 John Paul Stevens Public Interest Fellowship

The awards will be made in partnership with the John Paul Stevens Public Interest Fellowship Foundation, established by former law clerks of Justice Stevens. Two fellowships are available to support students' work in public interest law, either within the United States or abroad, during the summer of 2012. Each fellowship carries a stipend of $5,000. The Stevens Fellowships will recognize chosen students' commitment to public service and their potential for excellence throughout their legal careers. Further information on the fellowship, including the application and information on past student fellows from Davis can be found here.

For questions regarding the application, please contact Kirsten Hill. Fellowship applications are due on March 12, 2012 at 4 PM.
