1L Sacramento County Bar Association (SCBA) Diversity Fellowship

The Sacramento County Bar Association Diversity Fellowship Application for Summer of 2014 is available in the Symplicity document library. This is a fantastic opportunity for King Hall 1Ls to work in a law firm their first summer and gain exposure to law firm culture as well as develop skills and make professional contacts for the future. These are PAID positions.

Submit two hardcopies of your application and resume to the UC Davis Career Services Office no later than 5:00 PM, Friday, January 10, 2014. Late applications will not be accepted. If you missed the presentation by the SCBA committee members, the video recording is available on the intranet under the title "SCBA Diversity Fellowship" dated November 7, 2013. In addition, Career Services counselors can review your personal statement and conduct mock interviews. If you would like CSO to review your personal statement, please email to Natalie Butcher by 5:00 PM January 3, 2014. You are of course welcome to submit your personal statement earlier for review and feedback.

We strongly encourage all eligible 1Ls to apply. For any questions about the fellowship or application process, please contact Natalie Butcher, (530) 752-6574. We can also connect you with some of last year's fellows to discuss the application and program.

1L Bay Area Minority Summer Clerkship Program

The Bay Area Minority Summer Clerkship Program places first-year minority law students in summer jobs with legal employers. The Program seeks to provide a means for exposing minority law students to large law firms and vice versa. The objective is to establish a vehicle through which participation of minority students in large law firm clerkship programs is increased with the long-term goal of increasing minority hiring. These are PAID positions.

You will find the 2014 application here. Please note that the application packet includes an evaluation form from the applicant's legal research and writing instructor. If you are interested in applying, it is highly recommended that you reach out to your LRW professor now to secure a letter of recommendation because the deadline for the application is 3:00 PM, Monday, January 6, 2014.

Networking: How to Guide - Now Available on the Intranet

Would you like some detailed guidance on how to network including getting started and conducting an "informational interview?" The career services office has put together a comprehensive How to Network Presentation as well as two mock informational interview videos for your viewing. The video presentations explain the why, what, how, and when of networking and walks you through developing personal referrals and connections, making a positive first impression, attending events, and informational interviews.

You will find the networking presentation video on the intranet under the title "The Mechanics of Networking." The two mock information interview videos are also available on the intranet as Mock Informational Interview #1 (2L/Solo Practitioner/General Civil Litigation Practice) and Mock Informational Interview #2 (3L/Mid-Sized Firm/General Practice/Health Care).

Symplicity - New Document Size Limit

Symplicity has a new maximum file size per document. It was 200kb and is now 500kb. This new size limit will help with uploading transcripts and writing samples.

Stradling Yocca Carlson & Rauth 1L Reception - Cancelled

Due to scheduling conflicts, the Stradling Yocca Carlson & Rauth Home for the Holidays 1L Reception in Newport Beach has been cancelled.

Invitation to Winter 2013 Cocktail Reception - OCI in Hawaii

The firm of Chun Kerr LLP, together with six other small and mid-size Honolulu law firms, would like to invite the first and second year law students at the University of California, Davis School of Law, to the "Winter 2013 OCI in Hawaii" cocktail reception to be held on Friday, December 27, 2013, at the Cupola Theatre at the Honolulu Design Center, 1250 Kapiolani Boulevard, 2nd Floor, Honolulu, Hawaii 96814.

This reception is not a job fair, and it is not intended to replace on-campus interviews or resume collection. However, unlike large law firms, these small and mid-size firms find it challenging to annually conduct on-campus interviews at the University of California, Davis School of Law, because of their geographic location and the cost involved. They would like to meet UC Davis law students to encourage them to look into small and mid-size law firms as attractive alternatives to the large firms. They invite 1L and 2L students to attend their cocktail reception if students are in the Islands on December 27.

Space is limited so please RSVP by December 20 to ocihawaii@gmail.com.

Please contact Career Services ((530) 752-6574) for more information and the invitation with list of firms and websites. A one-page firm resumé for each hosting law firm will be available at the reception.

If you have any questions, please telephone Frances Yee at 1-808-528-8245.

Robins, Kaplan, Miller & Ciresi LLP Reception on January 2nd for 1Ls

Please join Robins, Kaplan, Miller & Ciresi LLP for an informal reception to learn about the firm, the practice, and meet the firm's attorneys. The reception is on Thursday, January 2, 2014 from 5:00 pm to 6:30 pm at the Rock Bottom Brewery, 800 LaSalle Avenue, 1st Floor, Minneapolis, MN 55402. RSVP by December 27 to Lacey Moen at ljmoen@rkmc.com or call 612-349-8537.

White House Internship Program Summer 2014 Application Open

The application for the Summer 2014 White House Internship Program (WHIP) is now open. The White House Internship Program is designed to mentor and cultivate today's young leaders, strengthen their understanding of the Executive Office of the President, and engage them in public service opportunities. A complete application includes: short answers, two essay questions, a one-page resume, and two letters of recommendation. The deadline to apply for the summer program is January 5, 2014.

For more information and to apply, please visit <http://www.whitehouse.gov/internships>.

Summer Fellowship on Legal Ethics

FASPE (Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics) is now accepting applications for a fellowship that uses the conduct of lawyers and judges in Nazi Germany as a launching point for an intensive two-week early summer program about contemporary legal ethics. Applications from all law students, regardless of what field of law they are interested in, are sought. Fellowships include an all-expense paid trip from New York to Berlin, Krakow, and Oswiecim (Auschwitz) where students will work with leading faculty to explore both legal history and the ethical issues facing lawyers today. All program costs, including international and European travel, lodging, and food, are covered.

The 2014 FASPE Law program will run from May 25 to June 5.

Completed applications must be received by January 6, 2014. Candidates of all religious, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

To apply or to learn more about FASPE, please visit: www.FASPE.info

If you have any questions, please contact Thorin Tritter, Managing Director of FASPE, at ttritter@FASPE.info.

Judicial Intern Opportunity Program

The American Bar Association Section of Litigation is accepting applications for its Summer 2014 Judicial Intern Opportunity Program from second-year law students. The program is a full-time (32 hours per week), six-week minimum, summer internship program open to all first- or second-year diverse law students. The deadline for all applications is January 10, 2014, but you are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.

The mission of the Judicial Intern Opportunity Program is to provide opportunities to students who are members of racial and ethnic groups that are traditionally underrepresented in the profession. The program also provides opportunities to students with disabilities, students who are economically disadvantaged, and students who identify themselves as LGBT.

Participating judges are from:

- Phoenix, AZ
- Los Angeles, CA
- San Francisco, CA
- Washington, D.C.
- Miami, FL
- Illinois

- Philadelphia, PA
- Texas
- Seattle, WA

Students may indicate geographic location preferences on their applications, but may not request particular judges or courts. Interns will receive an award of $2,000.

Internships for students with an Intellectual Property Law focus will be offered in Chicago, Los Angeles, Texas, and Washington, D.C. Students can indicate their interest on their applications. These specialized spots are limited and any student applying to the program with a request for specialization will also be considered for general litigation internships.

Please review detailed program information or frequently asked questions prior to applying to the program.

Capital Fellows Program Informational Session

Current Capital Fellows, Garrett Toy and Ian Adams, will be at King Hall for an information session on the Capital Fellows Program.

Monday, January 13

12:00-1:00pm

Room 1303

All class levels invited

The Capital Fellows Programs offer a unique opportunity to participate in policymaking and development. Fellows work for 10-11 months as full-time, paid staff members in the California State Assembly, California State Senate, California Executive Branch or the California Judiciary. Fellows actively engage in public service and prepare for future careers, while gaining firsthand experience in the governance and leadership of the most diverse, complex state in the nation.

Voted three years in a row (2010, 2011 & 2012) as one of the Top 10 internships nationwide by Vault.com, the Capital Fellows Programs are ranked highly for their combination of meaningful work experience and career opportunities. Each year, Vault's editors evaluate the internship programs profiled in their annual guide and select from those the top 10 internship programs they feel represent the best all-around opportunities.

Prospective Capital Fellows must have a bachelor's degree (in any major) by September 1, 2014 and a demonstrated interest in California state government and public service. Applicants may apply to one or more of the programs that meet their interests and qualifications. Recent graduates, graduate, postgraduate and mid-career applicants are welcome. For the 2014-15 fellowship year, individuals must complete the online application by the deadline of February 10, 2014.

If you have questions regarding the Capital Fellows Programs or need brochures, please contact Sacramento State's Center for California Studies at (916) 278-6906, calstudies@csus.edu or visit www.csus.edu/calst/programs.
