Sacramento County Bar Association (SCBA) Diversity Fellowship Presentations

Are you a diverse 1L interested in practicing in a Sacramento law firm this summer? The SCBA Diversity Fellowship is a great opportunity for UC Davis 1Ls to experience a private law firm setting in Sacramento as well as reap the benefits of hearing from various attorneys and judges about multiple aspects of the legal profession.

Please note that “diversity” includes race and ethnicity, socio-economic disadvantage (e.g. first generation college and/or law school graduate), gender identification, and sexual orientation, among other things.

Please join us for two separate fellowship presentations:

SCBA Diversity Fellowship Information Panel - November 7, noon-1, Room 1002
Meet committee members and practicing attorneys, Andre Campbell and Parissa Ebrahimzadeh (’12), to learn more about how the committee reviews applications, conducts interviews, and makes selections.

SCBA Past Fellows Workshop - November 13, noon-1, Room 1001
Work with past fellows on your application and interview preparation.

Judicial Clerkship Information Session for 2Ls - November 20th

Are you a 2L interested in a post-graduate judicial clerkship? A judicial clerkship provides unparalleled legal experience, prestige and resume enhancement, broad exposure to the law, a great lifestyle, and the chance to build a relationship with a judge that will last a lifetime. Come to the information session on November 20, 2013 at noon in Room 1001 to get all the details about the upcoming application process. The presentation will also include a panel of 3Ls who have successfully lined up post-graduate judicial clerkships, so that they can share their insight to the process.

Contact Natalie Butcher at nbutcher@ucdavis.edu for more information.

This Wednesday, November 6, 2013 (3:00 to 4:30 pm EDT), the Federal Circuit Bar Association (FCBA) is sponsoring a Webinar panel titled "Diverse Career Paths." This panel is directed to law students and lawyers with 1-5 years of experience. The panel will explore the development of the careers of six successful intellectual property law attorneys: Judge Grewal, Magistrate Judge for the Northern District of California; Jack Hobaugh, Counsel & Senior Director of Technology, Network Advertising Initiative; Paul Korniczky, Partner, Leydig, Voit & Meyer; Christy LaPierre, Associate, K&L Gates; Kim Tran, Associate, Perkins Coie; and A.E. Williams, Retired Patent Examiner, United States Patent and Trademark Office. Students can participate in the program for free, however registration is required. Or contact Andrew Hunter for student groups interested in free internet participation.

Also, the FCBA committees for Diversity, and Law Clerks and Students would like to invite students to join the FCBA (http://www.fedcirbar.org/olc/pub/LVFC/cpages/homepage/homepage.jsp) for free. The FCBA is the national organization for the bar of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in Washington DC. They sponsor numerous intellectual property law related programs relevant to law students and award scholarships. They also hold a national conference every year and publish articles through the Federal Circuit Bar Journal and FCBA Newsletter. Notably, all of our webinars are now offered for free to members.

Affordable Housing: The Reality Series Conference at King Hall on November 15th

On Friday, November 15th from 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM in Room 2303, King Hall will host a conference on Affordable Housing: The Reality Series. The conference will discuss critical issues such as the housing element and redevelopment, advocacy, litigation, and critical changes and new tools to increase affordable housing. The cost is $20 which includes all materials, refreshments and a boxed lunch. Registration form HERE. The conference is sponsored by Legal Services of Northern California, California Rural Legal Assistance, Inc., the Public Interest Law Project, and Western Center on Law and Poverty.

Kirsten Hill is looking for 4-6 student volunteers who can help with the set-up, registration, and logistics for the event in return for a free admission to the training and networking events. Interested students should contact Kirsten ASAP but no later than Thursday, November 7.

If you have any questions please send an email to oci@law.ucdavis.edu.

White House Internship Program Summer 2014 Application Open

The application for the Summer 2014 White House Internship Program (WHIP) is now open. The White House Internship Program is designed to mentor and cultivate today's young leaders, strengthen their understanding of the Executive Office of the President, and engage them in public service opportunities. A complete application includes: short answers, two essay questions, a one-page resume, and two letters of recommendation. The deadline to apply for the summer program is January 5, 2014.

For more information and to apply, please visit http://www.whitehouse.gov/internships.

1Ls Interested in the Criminal Law Field? Volunteer as a Neighborhood Court Panelist

The Yolo County District Attorney's Office recently started a Neighborhood Court Program which is overseen by Deputy District Attorney Chris Bulkeley. Mr. Bulkeley is looking for about 5 law students to serve on the neighborhood court. This would be an ideal position for a 1L student looking to gain some exposure to the criminal law field and should help with networking. The time commitment is very minimal, and Mr. Bulkeley is flexible with scheduling given the midterm schedule and upcoming finals. For more information on the program, you can visit the website here.

If you are an interested 1L, you can contact Mr. Bulkeley directly via email or phone at 530-681-6323. You can also contact 3L Josh Maxwell via email or phone at 602-228-7918.

Prepare for a Future Career...Engage yourself in Public Service - Apply to the Capital Fellows Program

The Capital Fellows Programs offer a unique opportunity to participate in policymaking and development. Fellows work for 10-11 months as full-time, paid staff members in the California State Assembly, California State Senate, California Executive Branch or the California Judiciary. Fellows actively engage in public service and prepare for future careers, while gaining firsthand experience in the governance and leadership of the most diverse, complex state in the nation.

Voted three years in a row (2010, 2011 & 2012) as one of the Top 10 internships nationwide by Vault.com, the Capital Fellows Programs are ranked highly for their combination of meaningful work experience and career opportunities. Each year, Vault's editors evaluate the internship programs profiled in their annual guide and select from those the top 10 internship programs they feel represent the best all-around opportunities.

Prospective Capital Fellows must have a bachelor's degree (in any major) by September 1, 2014 and a demonstrated interest in California state government and public service. Applicants may apply to one or more of the programs that meet their interests and qualifications. Recent graduates, graduate, postgraduate and mid-career applicants are welcome. For the 2014-15 fellowship year, individuals must complete the online application by the deadline of February 10, 2014.

If you have questions regarding the Capital Fellows Programs or need brochures, please contact Sacramento State's Center for California Studies at (916) 278-6906, calstudies@csus.edu or visit www.csus.edu/calst/programs.

Resources for Government Jobs 2013-2014

2013-14 Government Honors & Internship Handbook

The 2013-14 Government Honors & Internship Handbook is "live" online. This year's Handbook contains information about 144 federal programs offered by 66 federal employers and 73 programs offered by 60 state and local employers, for a total of 217 Honors and Internship opportunities. Click here for the handbook. Please contact Career Services for username and password information (careerservices@law.ucdavis.edu or (530) 752-6574).

Multiple government programs have 2L and 3L deadlines coming up in the next few weeks. Details of these programs are provided in the 2013-14 Government Honors & Internship Handbook.

2013-14 Federal Legal Employment Opportunities Guide
PSJD's Federal Legal Employment Opportunities Guide (FLEOG) offers a broad-based review of different career opportunities and paths to employment for law students and graduates interested in federal legal careers.

The Guide is a distillation of the key content from PSJD's more extensive Careers in Federal Government page. If you're still hungry for more information, browse through our entire Government Careers section - we have everything from State & Local Government Career Resources to a guide on the U.S. Federal Government's Pathways Program.
