National LGBT Bar Association 2014 Lavender Law Conference & Career Fair

The 2013 Lavender Law Career Fair is August 21-23, 2014 at the Sheraton New York Times Square and will feature individual career counseling. This program is designed to provide students with a safe, confidential space where they can ask questions about job search skills, being out on your resume, in interviews and in the workplace, and other related issues.

In conjunction with the Lavender Law® Career Fair, students will have the opportunity to meet on-site with legal career service professionals. These legal career counselors are qualified to provide students with advice on resume, cover letter, and interviewing. Further, these counselors all have significant workplace experience in various legal sectors, including LGBT advocacy groups, big firms, and the government.

Over 450 candidates and 150 recruiters representing law firms, government agencies and non-profit organizations interested in diversity were present at the 2013 career fair. Only law firms that have a non-discrimination policy that includes sexual orientation and gender identity/expression are eligible to recruit at the Career Fair.

The National LGBT Bar Association's annual Lavender Law® Career Fair is designed to achieve a sense of community and inclusion for LGBT candidates within the legal profession's recruiting efforts. By participating in this career fair, candidates will talk directly to LGBT-friendly recruiters from law firms, government agencies, LGBT rights groups, and corporate legal departments.

Membership in the National LGBT Bar Association is open to all lawyers, legal professionals, law students and other individuals in the legal profession without regard to age, race, religion, gender, color, national origin, ancestry, disability, political affiliation, sexual orientation or gender identity or expression.

A limited number of complimentary Lavender Law registrations are available for law students to attend this year's event. For more information and to register, go here.

National Black Prosecutors Association - Annual Job Fair

Tuesday, July 22, 2014

The National Black Prosecutors Association (NBPA) cordially invites you to participate in our Annual Job Fair on Tuesday, July 22, 2014 at the Hyatt Regency Scottsdale Resort & Spa at Gainey Ranch.

The goal of the National Black Prosecutors Association's (NBPA) Job Fair is to promote diversity in prosecutors' offices by providing a forum where law students, recent law graduates, and experienced attorneys from across the nation can meet and interview with prospective prosecutorial employers at the local, state, and federal levels.

The NBPA, established in 1983, is a professional member organization comprised of over 800 prosecutors. Our mission is to recruit, train, and advance the careers of minority attorneys as prosecutors at all levels of government.

The early registration fee for the Job Fair is $25.00 for law students and 2014 law school graduates, and $50.00 for experienced attorneys. After June 16th, the regular Job Fair registration fee is $50.00 for law students and 2014 law school graduates, and $75.00 for experienced attorneys. On July 1st, the Job Fair registration fee increases to $100.00 for law students and 2014 law school graduates, and $150.00 for experienced attorneys. You may register for the conference and job fair online at www.blackprosecutors.org.

Post-Graduate Public Interest Fellowships

2Ls -- If you intend to pursue a public interest career, please consider applying for a post-graduate public interest fellowship! Fellowships provide an amazing opportunity to get your foot in the door with a public interest organization and pursue your dream job. For more information about fellowships (including the application process), please take a look at the King Hall Public Interest Fellowship guide available on the intranet: <https://intranet.law.ucdavis.edu/community/career/files/Post-Graduate-Fellowship-Guide.pdf>

IF YOU ARE THINKING ABOUT APPLYING FOR A FELLOWSHIP, PLEASE EMAIL KIRSTEN HILL IN CAREER SERVICES OFFICE (khill@ucdavis.edu) AS SOON AS POSSIBLE SO WE CAN SCHEDULE A BRIEF MEETING OR CALL BEFORE YOU LEAVE FOR THE SUMMER!

Some important dates in the 2014-2015 application process:

Late May through August---Application deadlines from sponsoring organizations begin in late May and continue into August. Application deadlines can be found on psjd.org (or the hard-copy fellowship guide in the Career Services Office), Symplicity and the individual organization websites.

Early July-The 2015 Equal Justice Works Fellowship is available online.

July-August-Skadden applicants should work with Kirsten to prepare to call Susan Butler Plum with their project idea. (A recording of Susan's presentation to King Hall students on 4/10/2014 is available on the intranet. ALL Skadden applicants should watch this presentation before calling.)

Mid-September-2015 Equal Justice Works Fellowship Application is due.

October 6, 2014-2015 Skadden Fellowship Application is due.

Please note that there are dozens of other fellowships beyond Skadden and EJW-some project-based, some in-house, and some academic. Please schedule an appointment to meet with Kirsten, take a look at the King Hall fellowship guide on the intranet, the PSJD fellowship guide in the Career Services Office, and the psjd.org fellowship resources online. King Hall also has a strong network of public interest faculty, alumni, and fellow students. Talk to them and take advantage of their expertise and connections!

ABA Public Services Clerkship and Resources

A competitive ABA Public Service Clerkship is open to law students who are members of the ABA Law Student Division entering their second or third year at an ABA-accredited law school. The Public Service Clerk designs and completes a legal research and writing project over the summer in a substantive area of Division concern (see web pages of our constituent committees and commissions) or on the role of law in serving the public good. If of acceptable quality, the Division may publish the resultant monograph online or in other media. Successful candidates must submit up to a 5-page typed proposal describing the topic, content, and method to complete this project over the summer months. In addition, please include the name of a faculty member or other expert who has agreed to help review the work product.

The Clerkship is unpaid, but may qualify for academic or externship credit -- check with your law school if interested in this option. Preference is for the project to be undertaken in Washington, DC in order to facilitate meetings with a supervising Division staff director, but law students in other locations also will be considered. The quality, relevance, and feasibility of the proposed monograph will be key. Our deadline for receipt of applications for Summer 2014 is Friday, May 30, 2014. Please submit complete proposals by e-mail to kara.gillespie@americanbar.org. For more information, contact the Division at 202-662-1691.
