MANDATORY INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Beginning October 17, pursuant to ABA and NALP regulations, first year students will start having individual meeting with career advisors. You should already have received an email that shows the assigned date and time for your appointment.

If your appointment time does not work for you, please switch with a fellow student. Please contact that student directly by retrieving his/her email from the Intranet Directory:

- 1) Click here for the King Hall Intranet.
- 2) Select the "community" tab.
- 3) Choose "directory" from the left-side menu.
- 4) Enter the student's name in the search box.
- 5) Click on the student's name to view his/her profile, including an email address.

After you have switched your appointment, please send an email to careerservices@law.ucdavis.edu noting the change (your new date & time) and the name of the student with whom you switched.

MANDATORY SURVEY AND SYMPPLICITY ACCESS

First year students will soon gain access to Symplicity, our web-based system that houses job, externship, and on-campus interview postings from law firms, government agencies and public interest organizations. Symplicity also provides announcements of upcoming events and access to career development resources. Each first year student will be given their own individual Symplicity account with a username and password. Career Services will email 1Ls in early October with your Symplicity account information. On your first login to the database you will need to provide some profile information and fill out a short career survey.

Everything You Need to Know About Government Honors Attorney Programs

For the Class of 2017:

Entry-level attorney positions in government (the federal government especially) can be tough to come by. One major exception: government honors programs. Each year, many government departments recruit and hire for a limited number of openings reserved for recent graduates. Competition for these programs is often intense, but grades are only one part of what the agencies usually look for. Commitment to working in government, subject-matter expertise and/or experience, and long-term potential are all important factors, so everyone interested is encouraged to apply.

Hiring for government honors positions varies by agency, but are frequently quite early. Some deadlines have passed already, but many others are yet to come. We strongly encourage students to peruse honors program listings ASAP, so you don't miss out on great opportunities! It's easy. You can find extensive listings for government honors programs (including federal, state and local), broken out for you by agency and by deadline, here: <http://arizonahandbooks.com/u/ucdlaw>. Please contact Career Services for the password.

Here are a few examples of upcoming opportunities:

DEADLINE TO APPLY: February 1, 2017

For the Class of 2018:

Many government agencies offer summer "honors" internships to law students for their second summer, but hiring generally starts early: late summer and early fall of the preceding year. Some deadlines have passed, many are rolling (so apply ASAP!) and a few still remain. If you'd like to work for a federal, state or local government agency during summer 2017, we strongly encourage you to begin perusing listings and applying right away. You can find those listings broken out for you by deadline and agency, here: <http://arizonahandbooks.com/u/ucdlaw>. Please contact Career Services for the password.
