Mock Interview Program for 1Ls

The Career Services Office invites all 1Ls to participate in our summer mock interview program to help prepare for fall on campus interviews and secure your second-summer job.

Participants will be matched with alumni attorneys by geographic location, legal areas of interest and sector. Once matched, students and alumni will be able to set up a time at their convenience for a mock interview session over the summer.

If you'd like to participate, email careerservices@law.ucdavis.edu by May 1 with the following information:

- Geographic area in which you are located this summer;
- Legal practice areas of interest;
- Sector you are interested in working in (be as specific as possible);
- Attach an updated copy of your resume in PDF format.

We highly encourage you to take advantage of this great opportunity!

White & Case Technology Networking Reception

White & Case is hosting a networking reception for King Hall students interested in meeting technology lawyers in Silicon Valley. Senior Associate Dean Madhavi Sunder will be attending and giving special remarks.

When: Tuesday, April 25, 2017
5:00pm - 7:00pm

Where: White & Case LLP
3000 El Camino Real
5 Palo Alto Square, 9th Floor
Palo Alto, CA 94306

Public Interest Brown Bag Lunch

Join Professor Courtney Joslin and Jasmine Harris, as well as Public Interest Career Advisor Sofia Parino and Externships Director Sara Jackson for a brown bag lunch and discussion on public interest law. This is meant to provide an informal space to talk about classes, careers, fellowships and the pursuit of public interest law generally. Bring your own lunch, but treats will be provided!

When: Wednesday, April 26th, noon to 1:00pm

Where: Room 2050

Orrick Diversity Panel

Orrick invites you to their Sacramento office for a panel, "Hitting the Ground Running: How to Succeed in Your First Year of Legal Practice." The panelists will discuss how you can prepare for your first year as a practicing attorney with reflections on their experiences. This is a great opportunity to network with Orrick attorneys and get tips about law firm practice.

When: Tuesday, April 18, 2017, 5:30-7:00pm

Where: Wells Fargo Building, 400 Capitol Mall, Suite 3000, Sacramento (Wells Fargo Building parking will be validated)

Space is limited. Please RSVP to Rhonda McKinney, rmckinney@orrick.com, if you'd like to attend.

Equal Justice Works' AmeriCorps JD Program--Internship Opportunities Still Available!

There are a number of public interest organizations in California still actively seeking 1L and 2L interns for EJW's AmeriCorps JD Program. Participants receive an educational award of $1,230 for three hundred hours of service and can work on issues of employment, veterans, disaster relief, immigration and/or elder abuse.

Examples of organizations still seeking interns includes:

- Social Justice Collaborative (immigration)
- Mental Health Advocacy (Veterans)
- OneJustice (Veterans, Employment)
- Bet Tzedek (Elder Abuse)

For a complete list of organizations, visit EJW's list of organizations.

ABA Section of Litigation Annual Conference

King Hall students interested in litigation are invited to attend the American Bar Association Section of Litigation Annual Conference in San Francisco May 3-5, 2017, at the Hyatt Regency Embarcadero.

Law students can attend for only $50! Included in their registration are over 40 program options and 4 free networking events including a Welcome Reception, Networking Breakfast, Committee Meetings, and the It's Lit Afterparty designed for and by young lawyers.

Law students can register here: www.ambar.org/sac2017

Law Clerk Opening in Santa Cruz

Still looking for a summer law clerk position? The law firm of Atchison, Barison & Condotti, a boutique law firm in downtown Santa Cruz specializing in representing cities, public agencies and special districts in the San Francisco and Monterey Bay regions, is hiring for this summer. The clerkship is paid and can be part-time (minimum of 8 hours a week) or full-time during the summer.

For more information, see Symplicity Job ID 353507. The deadline to apply is May 7, 2017.

AABA Law Student Summer Grants

Still looking for summer funding? The Asian American Bar Association of the Greater Bay Area ("AABA") is offering one or more grants, up to $5,000, to help fund qualified summer law clerks working on legal projects that provide free legal services to the Asian American community. Applicants must be sponsored by a non-profit legal organization that has agreed to supervise the applicant for the summer of 2017.

The deadline to submit applicants for funding is April 28, 2017. See Simplicity ID 353479 for instructions on how to apply.

Benach Collopy Asylum Fellowship Opportunity

The Benach Collopy Fellowship offers the opportunity for an outstanding law student to work side by side with transgender asylum seekers to vindicate their rights and access the legal process in a way that is supportive and affirming. The Fellowship offers a $5,000 stipend for a 10-week full-time summer internship in Washington, DC during the summer of 2017.

Under the supervision of expert asylum attorneys at the respected law firm of Benach Collopy and the Whitman-Walker Health Legal Services Program, the Fellow will represent transgender asylum seekers fleeing persecution based on gender identity. The fellow will work closely with clients at Benach Collopy LLP and Whitman-Walker Health, both located in Northwest DC. Whitman-Walker Health is a medical-legal partnership dedicated to providing appropriate trans-affirming services.

The Fellow will work directly with clients, carrying active caseloads for filing to USCIS and the Immigration Court under the supervision of experienced attorneys. The deadline to apply is April 30, 2017.

For more information, see Simplicity ID 353412 or contact Career Services.

ABA Center for Innovation-Microsoft NextGen Fellowship

The ABA Center for Innovation and Microsoft have announced a unique new fellowship opportunity for recent law school graduates. The inaugural ABA Center for Innovation-Microsoft NextGen Fellow will gain invaluable experience while positively impacting the delivery of legal services to those most in need of assistance.

Among other exciting projects related to innovation in legal services, in 2016, Microsoft announced partnership with the Legal Services Corporation (LSC) to create statewide online justice portals. The project's aim is to direct low-income persons to appropriate legal aid resources in each state. In residence at Microsoft headquarters in Redmond, Washington, the ABA Center for Innovation-Microsoft NextGen Fellow will spend most of his or her time helping to advance the LSC portal project, while also contributing to a variety of other technology initiatives.

The Center is seeking a recent (within the last 5 years) law school graduate to spend one year in residence (August 1, 2017 - July 31, 2018) at Microsoft headquarters in Redmond, Washington. This Fellow will receive a $45,000 salary and benefits. Bar admission is not necessary.

Applications are due April 15, 2017. More information about this opportunity can be found here.

Public Interest Law Office Hours

Interested in Public Interest Law? Wondering how to plan your schedule or launch your career? Come chat with King Hall staff and faculty members about career planning, course selection, extra-curricular activities, postgraduate fellowships and all things relevant to public interest lawyering!

When: Wednesdays from 12:30-1:30pm

Where: Room 2360

Equal Justice Works Fellowships

Equal Justice Works is currently accepting applications for two Fellowships with their New Mexico Immigration Corps, hosted by New Mexico Immigrant Law Center in Albuquerque, NM. Candidates must apply online by April 17, 2017 to be considered.

The two-year Fellowship project will allow the Fellow to provide direct representation, assist with pro se clinics, mentor and train pro bono attorneys, develop pro se materials, and engage in community outreach and partnership. This project will provide the Fellow with an opportunity to engage in legal writing, including pleadings and know-your-rights educational handouts, advise clients on available remedies, and gain expertise in immigration law and advocacy.

Learn more about this great opportunity here.

California Bar Association Fellowship

The California Bar Foundation has announced a new, two-year fellowship opportunity for diverse attorneys committed to improving the lives of California's immigrant communities. The position is based in Sacramento and will support immigrant integration and refugee resettlement efforts in California.

The deadline to apply is April 17, 2017. For more information, see Symplicity Job ID 353401.

Public Policy and Law Fellowship with the Office of Santa Clara County District Two Supervisor Cindy Chavez

The Office of Santa Clara County District Two Supervisor Cindy Chavez is currently seeking motivated, analytical and outcome-driven Public Policy and Law Fellows with a passion to serve the families and constituents of District Two and Santa Clara County. Fellows will be eligible for stipend compensation depending on experience and qualifications.

More information about the fellowship and application instructions are available on Symplicity (Job ID 353392). Applicants should submit all requested materials in one PDF file to Alexander.Lin@bos.sccgov.org no later than 11:59PM on Thursday, April 13, 2017.
