providing advice and tips on how to make the most of your screening and callback interviews. The video recording is available here: <http://mediasite.ucdavis.edu/mediasite/Play/458d6d219bf54c5dba2c2e1802ff32c1d>. After you click the link, your credentials to access content on the intranet should provide you access to the video. The first half of the video focuses on screening interviews (refresher of spring OCI presentation) and the second half of the presentation focuses on callback interviews. We recommend that you watch the video before you attend your interviews.

In addition, we have provided links to screening interview and callback interview checklists, which include sample questions, below: <https://intranet.law.ucdavis.edu/community/career/files/Screening-Interview-Checklist.pdf> and <https://intranet.law.ucdavis.edu/community/career/files/Callback-Interview-Checklist.pdf>.

A few other quick reminders as you prepare for OCI interviews:

- Schedule your callback interview as soon as possible - many firms make offers on a rolling basis
- Remember to research the practice areas for the office that you are interviewing with!
 - www.nalpdirectory.com
 - Firm websites
 - Vault
 - Chambers
- Arrive to interview locations early so that you're not rushing
- Ask questions! The Career Services Office is here to help!

Attorney General Honors Program

The online application for the Attorney General's Honors Program (HP) and Summer Law Intern Program (SLIP) opened on July 31, 2017. The HP is the largest and most prestigious federal entry-level attorney hiring program of its kind and the SLIP is the Department's competitive recruitment program for compensated summer internships.

The deadline for law students and eligible graduates to apply to these programs is Tuesday, September 5, 2017.

The online application is accessible via: <https://www.avuedigitalservices.com/casting/aiportal/control/mainmenu?agency=dojoarm>. The application tips and checklist is a helpful tool for applicants before starting the online application. In addition, please see the links below for specific information about participating offices, number of available positions, eligibility information, and answers to frequently asked questions.

Alaska State Court Clerkship Opportunities

The Alaska Courts hire post-graduate law clerks for every level including state Trial Court (civil and criminal), Appellate Court (criminal), and Supreme Court (civil). A state trial court clerkship with a criminal law judge is a fantastic opportunity for those interested in Public Defender or District Attorney positions. Similarly, serving as the clerk for a civil trial court judge is great experience for those interested in civil litigation. The Alaska state trial court judges are also less grade sensitive and tend to hire deeper into the class. UC Davis School of Law Alaska Clerks have gone to have great careers in California and throughout the country. Please see below for upcoming deadlines.

2017 Equal Justice Works Conference and Career Fair Registration Now Open

<http://equaljusticeworks.org/law-school/conference-and-careerfair/students>

What is it? The Career Fair brings together hundreds of public interest and government employers from all over the nation. Click here to see the growing employer list. It is a great place to land a summer internship (Class of 2019) or a post-grad job (Class of 2018). In addition to the career fair, students take part in inspiring conference workshop sessions including this year's conversation with U.S. Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg on Friday afternoon.

When is it? October 27th and 28th. The deadline to apply for interviews is September 13, 2017.

Where is it? Arlington, VA

Should you go? YES. Especially if:

- you're Class of 2018, you want to be a public defender or prosecutor, and you're open to working outside California
- you want to work for non-profit public interest organizations, and you're open to working outside California
- you want to meet fellow public-interest oriented law students from throughout the country

Equal Justice Works is trying to make the travel to DC affordable by helping students connect for hotel sharing and the first 500 registered students will qualify for a chance to receive one of ten $100 travel stipends.

There is also limited supply of funding available from the Law School to help off-set the travel costs involved. Priority will be given to Class of 2018 students who have secured interviews.

Please see Sofia Parino (slparino@ucdavis.edu) in the Career Services Office with any questions.

2018-2020 Project Based Fellowship Applications Are Now Open

Equal Justice Works Fellowship applications are due September 27, 2017. Skadden Fellowship applications are due September 18, 2017.

EJW is putting on lots of events and has uploaded tons of material to help students with the applications process:

- Join Equal Justice Works for a Live Fellowships Twitter Chat: Tomorrow, Friday, August 4, EJW will host a live Twitter Q & A with current Fellows and their host organizations, so you can get real-time help from the pros! From 9 am to 10 am PST, Olivia Jerjian ('16) of DC's Legal Counsel for the Elderly (@LCEinDC) and Brook Hill ('16) of The Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs (@WashLaw4CR) will tweet their best application tips. Start sending your questions to fellowships@equaljusticeworks.org now, or get involved in real time by including #AskAFellow or #AskAHost in your tweet. You can follow EJW at @EJW_org!
- Learn how to Apply for Fellowships:
 1. Download the Application Guide, filled with best practices and strategies for finding a partner organization, designing a project, and more.
 2. Register for an Application Tips webinar focused on the 2018 application. Candidates will be introduced to the Fellowship, given tips for submitting a competitive application, and will be able to ask EJW staff any questions live. Candidates may register to receive a recording immediately following the webinar. Webinars are available August 8th and August 23rd from 12 pm - 1 pm.
 3. Review what issue areas and geographic regions Sponsors prefer to help you create a competitive and appealing application. Check out EJW's Sponsor Preferences page often for new additions.
