Sacramento County Bar Association (SCBA) Diversity Fellowship Presentation

Are you a diverse 1L interested in practicing in a Sacramento law firm this summer? The SCBA Diversity Fellowship is a great opportunity for UC Davis 1Ls to experience a private law firm setting in Sacramento as well as reap the benefits of hearing from various attorneys and judges about multiple aspects of the legal profession. These are PAID positions.

Please note that "diversity" includes race and ethnicity, socio-economic disadvantage (e.g. first generation college and/or law school graduate), gender identification, and sexual orientation, among other things.

Please join us this Thursday for a fellowship presentation:

SCBA Past Fellows Workshop - November 19, noon-1, Room 1301 - Work with past fellows on your application and interview preparation.

Careers in Labor and Employment Law -- Advice from the Experts

The Bar Association of San Francisco's Labor and Employment Law Section is hosting a presentation for law students interested in more information about a career in labor and employment law. The event is free and will be held on November 19, 2015 at Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton (Four Embarcadero Center, San Francisco) from 5:30 -7:00 pm. Please RSVP to bfanning@sfbbar.org.

This is a wonderful opportunity to meet experts in every area of labor and employment law.

Environmental Law Alumni Student Mixer

Thursday, November 19
5:30 PM - 7:30 PM
Resources Law Group
555 Capitol Mall
Suite 1090
Sacramento, CA 95814

Please join King Hall alumni, friends and students at our Environmental Law networking event! Alumni Board members, in conjunction with the LSA Alumni Relations Committee, are excited to host the 5th annual King Hall Legal Networking Series. This series will bring our community together throughout the year to explore various topics of the law.

Talking directly with practitioners is the best opportunity to learn about the day-to-day and career-long experiences of Environmental Law attorneys. We look forward to seeing you there!

This mixer will provide current students with an opportunity to discuss what it is like to work as a litigator. Practitioners will be invited to give brief remarks about their particular areas of work. Business attire requested. Drinks and refreshments will be served.

Kindly RSVP HERE by Tuesday, November 17.

Summer Judicial Externship Opportunities for Diverse Students

Are you a diverse student interested in judicial externships this summer? The American Bar Association Section of Litigation will begin accepting applications for its Summer 2016 Judicial Intern Opportunity Program on Monday, November 16, 2015. Applications for first-year law students will be accepted December 1, 2015, in accordance with NALP guidelines. The deadline for applications is January 4, 2016. Please note that screening interviews will begin in December and will continue through the application process. The first 500 applicants will be guaranteed at least one interview. Additional applicants will be interviewed on an as needed basis. The program is a full-time (32 hours per week), six-week minimum, summer internship program open to all first- or second-year diverse law students. The mission of the Judicial Intern Opportunity Program is to provide opportunities to students who are members of racial and ethnic groups that are traditionally underrepresented in the profession. The program also provides opportunities to students with disabilities, students who are economically disadvantaged, and students who identify themselves as LGBT. Interns will receive an award of $2,000. Please review detailed program information or frequently asked questions prior to applying to the program.

In addition, Just The Beginning - A Pipeline Organization is pleased to announce the sixth annual Summer Judicial Internship Diversity Project for Summer 2016. The Project's goal is to provide summer judicial internships for highly-qualified minority, underrepresented, and economically disadvantaged law students. Operating nationally since 2011, the JRC-JTB Project has placed nearly 300 law students in successful internships to date. Over 100 judges have participated in such efforts and look to the JRC-JTB Project for summer internship candidates. See the website for more information. Applications are due by January 11, 2016 at 5:00 pm EST.
