Hanson Bridgett 1L Interview Workshop

Attention 1Ls! The Hanson Bridgett 1L Interview Workshop for diverse first year students will be at McGeorge School of Law on Saturday, November 18, 2017 from 7:30 am - 1:45 pm.

The Workshop schedule is as follows:

- 7:30-8:00 - Check-in / breakfast / networking
- 8:00-10:15 - Seminar
- 10:30-11:00 - Quick preparation for practice interviews
- 11:00-12:30 - Practice interviews
- 12:00-1:45 - Networking lunch

If you are interested in attending, please RSVP to Marisa Compesi (mcompesi@hansonbridgett.com) before the Friday, November 3rd deadline and attach a copy of your resume (in PDF format).

If you have not already updated your resume to include your current enrollment at the law school, make sure to do that before submitting your RSVP. Also, in your RSVP please include your student organization affiliation(s). Please note that space is limited in the workshop and Hanson Bridgett will schedule practice interviews on a first-come, first-served basis.

This is a great opportunity to gain interview experience and to network with leading attorneys in the area!

Judicial Clerkship Information Session

Interested in a post-graduate judicial clerkship? The Career Services Office will be presenting a Judicial Clerkship Information Session on Wednesday, October 11th at noon in Room 1301.

A post-graduate judicial clerkship provides unparalleled legal experience, prestige and resume enhancement, broad exposure to the law, and the chance to build a relationship with a judge that will last a lifetime. In this program, Natalie Butcher of Career Services will discuss the clerkship application process, hiring timeline, and strategies for obtaining a judicial clerkship. Questions? Please contact Natalie Butcher.

Save the Date! King Hall Small/Midsize Firm Fair

Attention 2L and 3L students! On Thursday, November 2nd from 6:00 to 7:30 pm, Career Services will host the Fourth Annual Small and Midsize Firm Fair at King Hall. The event will kick-off at 6:00 pm with a meet-and-greet reception in the hallway outside Career Services where you will be able to speak with attorneys in a wide range of practice areas and drop off your resume with firms of interest. You are invited and highly encouraged to take advantage of this great opportunity to meet potential employers right here at the law school. Many of these firms have hired King Hall students for summer law clerk positions and/or as associates. Keep an eye out in the coming weeks for invitations and a list of firms who will attend.

Public Law Panel--October 12th, Room 1001

On October 12th from noon-1:00 p.m. in Room 1001, the Public Law Section’s Executive Committee is hosting a lunch reception for lawyers and students which will include lunch. The panel will be moderated by Asst. Dean Craig Compton, and the panelists will discuss their public service careers and the qualities they look for when hiring.

Speakers will include:

- Phillip Talbert, the United States Attorney for the EDCA
- Natalia Luna, Assistant Chief Deputy — Sacramento County District Attorney
- Kara Ueda, Partner, Best Best & Krieger
- Matthew Ruyak, City Attorney for Sacramento

The panel will discuss best practices for securing employment with their agencies. There will be boxed lunches made by Zia's Deli.

Please RSVP by October 5, 2017 to Annie.Tsai@calbar.ca.gov with the subject as "RSVP for Public Law Section" (please include your address and phone number).

Environmental Law Reception—October 12, 5:30pm

The King Hall Environmental Law Society (ELS), in partnership with the California Environmental Law & Policy Center (CELPC), invite you to a reception on Thursday, October 12th at 5:30pm at Stoel Rives LLP in Sacramento.

This event is the ideal opportunity for 1Ls, 2Ls, and 3Ls to explore the many facets of environmental law while honing their networking skills amongst King Hall alumni and other practitioners of environmental law.

Please RSVP here to ensure you will have a name tag.

Questions? Olivia at ofibrandt@ucdavis.edu.

Immigrant Justice Corps (IJC) Fellowships

- Tuesday, October 17th at 2:30pm (EST)
- Friday, October 20th at 4:30pm (EST)

If you are interested in signing up for a webinar session, register here.

NRDC Fellowship Deadline Extended

The deadline for the Natural Resources Defense Council Charles Koob Litigation Fellowship (Symplicity ID 354629) has been extended until October 13, 2017. Interested candidates can submit application materials here.

Racial Justice Fellowship for Summer 2018

Justice in Aging has announced its first Racial Justice Fellowship for Summer 2018 focused on the intersection of poverty, aging, legal advocacy, and racial justice. The fellow can work in any of their three offices in Oakland, Los Angeles or Washington D.C. This is a paid fellowship!

The fellowship is open to current 2Ls with a passion for public interest law and a commitment to communities of color for a 10-week summer fellowship. The fellow will work with staff to identify a project that integrates Justice in Aging's core programs, health care and economic security, with the fellow's personal and professional interests.

Applications are accepted until October 9, 2017. More details can be found here.

U.S. Department of Labor Honors Program

The U.S. Department of Labor is seeking applicants for its Honors Program, a two-year program for full-time, entry-level attorneys who will have graduated from law school in 2018. They are hiring up to nine positions, with six at the national office in Washington, DC and three at regional offices (Kansas City, Boston, and Dallas). The attorneys will be part of the Office of the Solicitor, the agency that represents the Secretary of Labor in court and before administrative adjudicatory boards and commissions. National office Honors Attorneys work with various subject-area divisions, performing litigation, regulatory writing and review, client advice, appellate advocacy, and administrative action work. Regional Honors Attorneys primarily handle litigation—bringing cases to enforce things such as Fair Labor Standards Act, workplace safety laws, federal workers’ compensation laws, and anti-discrimination obligations in federal contracts. After two years, Honors Attorneys receive a permanent placement in a regional office or national office division of the Office of the Solicitor.

The application deadline is October 6, 2017. For any additional information about the program and its hiring, please visit its website (http://www.dol.gov/sol/honorsprogram/), or watch this short video (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=77hi66ZhK8E).

Bar Association of San Francisco Membership Only $17 for Law Students

The Bar Association of San Francisco (BASF) is offering King Hall students the chance to join BASF at a student rate of $17.00 for the remainder of the year. This membership will allow students to attend all of BASF’s August programming and many more programs for FREE throughout the year. These events offer a great chance to network with Bay Area attorneys. Email cle@sfbar.org for more information and details.

Updated DA and PD Hiring Guides

For students interested in researching and submitting direct applications for opportunities with California District Attorney's offices and Public Defender's offices, the Interview and Hiring Guides for California District Attorney and Public Defender Offices have been updated and are available on the Career Services website:

Information includes updates on internship and job opportunities, hiring practices and contacts for each county in California.
