Hanson Bridgett 1L Interview Workshop

Attention 1Ls! The Hanson Bridgett 1L Interview Workshop for diverse first year students will be at McGeorge School of Law on Saturday, November 18, 2017 from 7:30 am - 1:45 pm.

The Workshop schedule is as follows:

- 7:30-8:00 - Check-in / breakfast / networking
- 8:00-10:15 - Seminar
- 10:30-11:00 - Quick preparation for practice interviews
- 11:00-12:30 - Practice interviews
- 12:00-1:45 - Networking lunch

If you are interested in attending, please RSVP to Marisa Compesi (mcompesi@hansonbridgett.com) before the Friday, November 3rd deadline and attach a copy of your resume (in PDF format).

If you have not already updated your resume to include your current enrollment at the law school, make sure to do that before submitting your RSVP. Also, in your RSVP please include your student organization affiliation(s). Please note that space is limited in the workshop and Hanson Bridgett will schedule practice interviews on a first-come, first-served basis.

This is a great opportunity to gain interview experience and to network with leading attorneys in the area!

Upcoming 1L Summer Information Sessions

First-year students interested in learning more about judicial externships and public interest/public sector internships should mark their calendars for the relevant presentations. All presentations will take place in Room 1301.

October 27, noon-1pm (Judicial Externships)
November 3, noon-1pm (Public Interest/Public Sector Internships)

King Hall Small/Midsize Firm Fair

Attention 2L and 3L students! On Thursday, November 2nd from 6:00 to 7:30 pm, Career Services will host the Fourth Annual Small and Midsize Firm Fair at King Hall. The event will kick-off at 6:00 pm with a meet-and-greet reception in the hallway outside Career Services where you will be able to speak with attorneys in a wide range of practice areas and drop off your resume with firms of interest. You are invited and highly encouraged to take advantage of this great opportunity to meet potential employers right here at the law school. Many of these firms have hired King Hall students for summer law clerk positions and/or as associates. Keep an eye out in the coming weeks for invitations and a list of firms who will attend.

"a person of a racial or ethnic group that is under-represented in the legal profession, LGBT, a person with a disability, or a person that can otherwise articulate how s/he is diverse and how his/her diversity is under-represented in the legal profession."

Capitol Weekly's Conference on Immigration

California stands at odds with Federal immigration laws and policies. As the Trump administration ramps up ICE activity and seeks to build a wall between Mexico and the United States, California lawmakers are offering resistance and opposition at every turn, most recently with the passage of SB54, the California Sanctuary State Bill. What happens when the most-populous state in the US takes on the Feds in one of the hot-button issues of the day?

A CONFERENCE ON IMMIGRATION

will be held from 9:15AM - 3:15PM, Thursday November 9, 2017 at the Sacramento Historic Masonic Temple, Grand Ballroom, 1123 J Street, Sacramento, CA 95814.

Regular registration rate is $199. Registration includes lunch and all conference materials. For information regarding registration, including fee waivers, contact Kathy Brown, 916 444 7665 or kathy.brown@capitolweekly.net.

Capitol Weekly's Conference on Immigration will feature four panels examining the current Immigration debate:

Labor and the Economy: From farmworkers to highly-skilled technology experts, immigrants play a huge role in the California economy. We'll look at the numbers, benefits and costs of immigration.

Sanctuary: California's new Sanctuary State bill expands protections that already existed in many California cities. What are the real-world impacts of this and other Sanctuary laws?

The Impact on Families and Communities: What impact are travel bans, changes to DACA, stepped up ICE raids and other Trump administration policies having on immigrants and their communities?

Look Ahead: The immigration debate around Proposition 187 profoundly changed California; what will be the ultimate impact of the Trump administration's policies - and the state's reaction to them?

Confirmed speakers include:

Chiqui Cartagena, Univision
Jennie Pasquarella, ACLU of Southern California
Dan Morain, Sacramento Bee
Sandra Diaz, SEIU
Ted Lempert, Children Now
Hector Barajas, Merino, Barajas & Allen
Rob Sanger, California Manufacturers and Technology Association
Elizabeth Aguilera, CALmatters
Peter Leroe-Muñoz, Silicon Valley Leadership Group
Jason Resnick, Western Growers Association
Arnoldo Torres, Torres and Torres
Holly Cooper, UC Davis School of Law
Mike Madrid, GrassrootsLab
Rich Ehsen, State Net Capitol Reports

Law students of all years are invited to learn about paid summer and post-graduate fellowships in workers' rights.

Thursday, November 2, 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. EST
Dial-in Number: 1-218-844-1930
Participant Access Code: 3221991

Featuring:
Kimberly Sánchez, Ethics Ombudsperson & Assistant General Counsel, SEIU
Mary Anne Moffa, Executive Director, Peggy Browning Fund

Call Logistics: Due to the large number of participants, we ask that all students mute themselves when joining the call. To make the call interactive, students are encouraged to email or gchat questions in advance and during the call to lecjobpostings@gmail.com. Please include your name, school, and class year.

Summer Legal Ethics Fellowship

FASPE (Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics) is now accepting applications for its 2018 Law program. FASPE Law is a fully-funded, two-week summer program that uses the conduct of lawyers and judges in Nazi Germany as a launching point for an intensive study of contemporary legal ethics. FASPE Law is predicated upon the power of place. Fellows visit Auschwitz and other sites in Germany and Poland where they consider how to apply the lessons of history to the ethical challenges they will face in their careers.

In 2018, the program will take place from Monday, May 21 to Friday, June 1. (Fellows are expected to arrive in Europe by Sunday, May 20.) All program costs are covered, including the equivalent of round-trip travel from New York to Europe, as well as all European travel, lodging, and food. FASPE Law Fellows travel and share some seminars with Fellows in the FASPE Business and Journalism programs. FASPE Law is open to current JD and LLM students and those who received a JD or LLM between May 2016 and January 2018. It is designed to address ethical challenges in all fields of law, including the private sector, public interest organizations, and the government.

To learn more about FASPE and to apply, visit: <http://www.faspe-ethics.org/law/>.

Completed applications are due by Thursday, January 11, 2018.

Reproductive Justice Fellowship

Are you a current 3L or recent law school graduate who is passionate about reproductive rights and justice? And want to gain hands-on policy and advocacy experience? If so, apply today to be a Reproductive Justice Fellow!

If/When/How is now accepting applications for the 2018-19 Reproductive Justice Fellowship Program (RJFP), which places newly graduated lawyers at nonprofits for a one-year, policy-focused fellowship in reproductive health, rights, and justice work. The RJFP now includes Federal, State, and HIV fellowships, with placement locations in Atlanta, GA; Oakland, CA; Pittsburgh, PA; Seattle, WA; and Washington, D.C.

For more information and instructions for how to apply, download the RJFP Application here. The deadline for applications is November 1, 2017.

Questions? Contact Sofia Parino to set up a time to meet.

The National Law Review 2017 Law Student Writing Competition

Submissions are now being accepted for the National Law Review (NLR) 2017 Law Student Writing Competition. The Competition offers law students the opportunity to submit articles for publication consideration on the NLR website.

Suggested topics include (but are not limited to):

- Cyber-security Issues--Major data breaches, EU privacy shield, wearable devices, medical devices
- Immigration Rights
- Election 2016/2017 Coverage
- Tax Issues
- Constitutional Issues--First Amendment, Gun Control
- Employment Issues--Ban the Box Laws, Minimum Wage, Transgender Accommodations, Age-Sex Discrimination

This is a great opportunity to publicly display your legal knowledge and skills and demonstrate your business development skills to future employers!

Entries for the September contest must be submitted via email to lawschools@natlawreview.com by 5:00pm CST October 31, 2017. Winners will be published in early November.

Bar Association of San Francisco Membership Only $17 for Law Students

The Bar Association of San Francisco (BASF) is offering King Hall students the chance to join BASF at a student rate of $17.00 for the remainder of the year. This membership will allow students to attend all of BASF's August programming and many more programs for FREE throughout the year. These events offer a great chance to network with Bay Area attorneys. Email cle@sfbar.org for more information and details.
