Managed intellectual property policy initiatives and enforcement programs for multi-national software industry clients, with a focus on Southern European and Southern African countries. Liaised with European Community, WIPO, and USTR officials on issues of importance to software industry and assisted with WTO-TRIPs compliance initiatives in various European, Middle Eastern and African markets.

International Criminal Tribunal-Rwanda, Kigali, Rwanda
Consultant

Oct.-Nov. 1996

Assisted in the development of a strategy for the investigation and prosecution of sex crimes committed during the 1994 Rwandan genocide; developed protocol to be used by investigators interviewing sexual assault survivors and other witnesses to sexual assault; assisted in the development of guidelines for victim/witness services oriented to sexual assault survivors. I also analyzed the sexual assault evidence against Jean-Paul Akayesu and advocated that the indictment against him be amended to include sex-assault-based counts. In August 1998, the Tribunal convicted Akayesu on counts of both genocide and crimes against humanity for which the acts included sexual assaults.

Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, The Hague, The Netherlands
Legal Assistant

Oct. 1993-Oct. 1996

Assisted Judge George H. Aldrich in preparing for hearings and deliberations on complex commercial, property and treaty interpretation cases. Work included drafting bench memoranda and awards in chamber and Full Tribunal cases, legal research and administrative matters.
