WHY STUDY OVERSEAS?

Among the many values are:

- Exposure to another legal education system
- Legal comparison – Understand other legal systems
- Enhance course selection
- Develop marketable skills → Future career opportunities
- Networking
- Personal growth
WHAT IS AN EXCHANGE PROGRAM?

Exchange Programs

• Students study through Reciprocity Agreement
• Curriculum is delivered by host institution
• Tuition is paid at home law school
HOW DOES IT DIFFER FROM OTHER STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS?

How external Study Abroad options differ...

- Not reciprocal
- Become a student of that institution
- Direct payment of tuition
WHO CAN GO?

- 2L and 3L students
- Apply as a 1L to go as a 2L, apply as a 2L to go as a 3L.
WHEN DO STUDENTS GO?

Fall or Spring
Copenhagen, Dublin, Madrid, Newcastle, Sonipat, Paris, and Lausanne

Fall
Beijing and Santiago

FOR HOW LONG?
One semester
WHAT ABOUT UNITS, GRADES AND TRANSCRIPTS?

- Receive 12 units of academic credit from UC Davis
- Must carry a full course load
- Must pass all courses
- Name of course and grade not recorded on transcript
- Not figured into GPA
- May need separate transcript later
CONSIDERATIONS

What to consider in deciding whether to participate in an exchange program:

- Can I get all of my units taken care of?
- Will I miss anything important while I am gone?
- Can I arrange to take my courses and tests?
- How much travel experience have I had?
- What are my goals and expectations?
- Will studying at my chosen location meet my goals and expectations?
- Will I experience culture shock?
WHAT ABOUT TUITION AND FINANCIAL AID?

- Remain enrolled at UCD, pay tuition to UCD.
- Keep your financial aid package.
Whether you have SHIP or waived for other plan, it is important to:

- Add + international coverage option
- Check with provider as to reimbursement policy and medical provider network abroad.
- International Programs Office can offer advice on questions to ask your provider
- Mandatory UC Traveler’s Insurance

The UC Davis School of Law Office of International Programs arranges and facilitates students’ placements at our partner institutions.

Students must work with the partner law schools’ staff and officials to manage all of the logistics, such as visa, housing, course registration and transcript reporting.

The staff of the Office of International Programs is available to assist students before leaving and during their semester abroad.
