

REGULATIONS OF THE
FACULTY OF THE SCHOOL OF LAW
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, DAVIS

LLM Degree

6.3 Examinations, Written Work, and Grades

- A. Unless otherwise provided in this Article, all provisions in Articles II and III regarding examinations, written work, and grades applicable to J.D. students apply as well to LL.M. students.
- B. LL.M. candidates who are foreign law graduates and whose native language is not English shall be granted additional time for written examinations. The additional time shall be 20 minutes per regular exam hour.
- C. Professors shall grade LL.M. candidates on the same basis as J.D. candidates.
- D. Prior to the last day of a semester, LL.M. candidates may elect to receive "Satisfactory"/ "Unsatisfactory" grades instead of a letter grade in any graded course.
- E. Upon completing the LL.M. program, LL.M. candidates may elect to have their entire transcript converted to "Satisfactory"/ "Unsatisfactory" grading.
- F. For purposes of the conversions in paragraphs D and E, all courses for which a J.D. candidate would receive credit will be converted as a "Satisfactory" grade.
