

THIS SINGLE APPLICATION SHOULD BE USED TO APPLY TO ANY OF THE FOLLOWING SUMMER FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITIES:

- The John Paul Stevens Public Interest Fellowships:
Number of Fellowships: 3
For: Otherwise unpaid legal work at non-profit organizations or government agencies (judicial externships are not eligible. Court-based legal assistance, such as Family Law Facilitators' Offices and Self-Help Centers, do qualify.)
Award: $5,000
Selection Process: King Hall faculty and/or staff members will review and score the applications. The three highest cumulative scores will receive Stevens Fellowships.

- UCOP Public Service Fellowships:
Number of Fellowships: dependent on funding
For: Otherwise unpaid legal work at non-profit organizations or government agencies (judicial externships are not eligible. Court-based legal assistance, such as Family Law Facilitators' Offices and Self-Help Centers, do qualify.)
Maximum Possible Award: $4,000 (1L) or $4,500(2L) (see fellowship eligibility rules for details)
Selection Process: King Hall faculty and/or staff members will review and score the applications. The three highest cumulative scorers will receive Stevens Fellowships. Summer Public Service Fellowships will be awarded to the next highest scorers, in turn, until fellowship funds are exhausted.

- The King Hall Legal Foundation (KHLF) Fellowships:
Number of Fellowships: dependent on funding
For: Otherwise unpaid legal work that raises the economic, educational, and social levels of under-privileged and underrepresented individuals and groups.
Maximum Possible Award: Dependent on funding.
Overall Summer Funding Cap: $10,000 (see KHLF fellowship eligibility rules for details)
Selection Process: KHLF is an independent, student-directed non-profit organization. Each applicant's proposal is evaluated anonymously by a selection committee. The KHLF Board of Directors has developed the selection criteria in accordance with the organization's mission. KHLF awards grants to those applicants receiving the highest overall scores tallied from each of the members of the selection committee.
