

THE AOKI CENTER FOR CRITICAL
RACE AND NATION STUDIES AND
THE MABIE LAW LIBRARY PRESENT:

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY RESEARCH TRAINING

Senior Research Law Librarian Elisabeth McKechnie will describe the basics of federal and California legislative History Research.

Two faculty members who have used legislative history to prove facially neutral laws were motivated by racial bias will also participate: Prof. Eric Fish is the author of Race, History and Immigration Crimes, and Prof. Jack Chin, author of Rehabilitating Unconstitutional Statutes. Both articles have been cited in recent federal court decisions.
