

DACA IS HEADING TO THE SUPREME COURT

on November 12, 2019

Check: When does your DACA expire?

If you've never had DACA before, you cannot apply for the first time.

Important!

There is no way of knowing exactly how the Supreme Court will rule and what will happen to DACA after this hearing, but it is important to prepare in advance of any decision.

Can I renew my DACA?

- Any criminal and/or immigration issues?
→ See an attorney
- Did it expire before 9/5/2016?
→ See an attorney
- Paying the $495 filing fee?
→ Check with your campus for financial support options

When to renew:

- If your DACA expires within the next 6 months, renew NOW.
- If your DACA expires within the next 6 – 12 months, prepare ASAP to renew and talk with an attorney.

Contact Us:

- UC Davis students and qualifying family members may set up individual phone consultations for DACA renewals with UCD's Legal Fellow, Damian, at tinyurl.com/y69hltfm or damian.ucimm@law.ucdavis.edu

Advance Parole

- Advance parole is no longer available.
- DACA recipients CANNOT travel outside the U.S. without risk!
